A Little Koula and the Biggest Saints

Eleni Theodora is thrilled to receive the delicious artron on her 80th birthday.}

One of the dance groups of the community of St. Demetrios of Philadelphia will present traditional ethnic entertainment in the form of Greek dance and music.}

How important is your faith in your work?

Rountos, a Ph.D. candidate at New York’s Stony Brook Institute of Oceanography, said that “I do have a very significant role in my work.” He emphasized that his faith is an integral part of his professional life.

What are some environmental challenges you’d like to see addressed at your university?

Rountos responded that there are many environmental challenges facing our society today. He pointed out that there is a need for more research on climate change and its impacts on the natural world.

What do you hope to achieve with your research?

Rountos hopes to continue his research and make contributions to the field of oceanography. He wants to inspire others to pursue careers in this exciting and important field.

What is your advice for students interested in pursuing a career in oceanography?

Rountos advised students to pursue their interests and be open to new opportunities. He emphasized that success often comes from taking risks and pursuing passions.

More information about the event can be found at www.sponserfest.org.